Learning to Read in Bari
Bari Alphabet Book

Third Edition

Patrick R. Ladu

The State Bari Language Editorial and Advisory Committee
(Ministry of Education, Central Equatoria State)
&

2011

The State Bari Language Editorial and Advisory Committee has extensively revised this reader, written by the pioneer late Andrea Kiri, late Laurencio Lado and late Sejario Lako.

The second edition of Bari book 1 was split into 2 parts; this book, the Alphabet book, and the new Bari Book 1. The Alphabet book is taken from the old Bari book 1 pages 3 to 33 with some revision.

Technical advice was provided by the staff of the Summer Institute of Linguistics.

Illustrations were drawn by Mr Charles D. Mawa and Mr Cary Wong.

This Bari Alphabet book is the revised edition of Bari Book One, first edition of 1984.

The revised Bari Alphabet in this book has been taken from Learning to Read in Bari, Book 1 from page 4 to page 33 of that book.

You will find some new lessons in this revised edition.

This revised edition of the Bari Alphabet book was written by Mr. Patrick Ladu who is a member of the State Bari Language Editorial and Advisory Committee.

Technical advice was provided by the Summer Institute of Linguistics (SIL).

If you have any advice or some suggestions in ways of improving the Bari Alphabet book, please do not hesitate to send your suggestions to the State Bari Language Editorial and Advisory Committee in the State Ministry of Education – Central Equatoria, Juba. Or send your suggestions to the Bari Language Committee in your Payam or County.

This revised edition was written in September 2011
